Flour Bluff HS NJROTC to take part in Annual Military Inspection

Who: Flour Bluff High School Naval Junior Reserve Officers' Training Corps (NJROTC) cadets, members of the United States Navy and Flour Bluff ISD Administrators

What: Each year, the Flour Bluff HS NJROTC is inspected through an assessment required by the United States Navy, the branch of service the Flour Bluff NJROTC unit represents. The annual inspection tests cadets on basic JROTC knowledge and skills and evaluates the overall program. Cadets are inspected on proper wear of uniforms and upkeep, asked questions and take part in an exhibition performance. Flour Bluff High school has been a Navy Distinguished Unit with Academic Honors since the 1994-1995 school year. In February, the Flour Bluff NJROTC won their 22nd annual state competition. They advance to the national competition set for early May in Daytona Beach, Florida.

Where: Flour Bluff ISD Hornet Stadium
2505 Waldron Road

When: Wednesday, March 22
10 a.m. – Media Photo Opportunity
Annual inspection takes place from 8:30 – 11:30 a.m.
