In attendance were James Crenshaw, Brandon Cunningham, Gina Valdez, Dawn Evans, Sandra Martinez, Brandi Venable, Steven McClure, Shana Fuller, Phyllis Cox, Karen Gilson, Christina Harris, Veronica Minners, Andrea Holley, Mandy Cox, Jeanie Paluseo, Erick Martinez, and Cindy Holder.

New Business:

- Committee was asked if Jason Foundation (prevention of youth suicide program) could be voted on. The SHAC Committee asked for a refresh of the content provided by Jason Foundation. It was decided that the committee would move forward and vote on the Jason Foundation curriculum. Jason Foundation was voted on with a 9 to 1 favor.
- Youth Odyssey – after the last SHAC meeting in September, there were questions regarding Youth Odyssey. Handouts were distributed for the committee to review and discuss. The committee decided to table the vote until more information can be provided.
- CATCH My Breath – Youth Vaping Curriculum – Cindy Holder, Director of SDGC, presented information on CATCH My Breath. Handouts were provided for the program and a login and password were provided to the committee so members could login and view the content and how the information is presented. The material content is appropriate for grades 5 – 12. There are four lessons geared toward factual information about the affects of nicotin and what it does to your body.

Old Business:

Other Discussion:

- Nursing Department – Dawn Evans spoke about the hearing and vision screenings that are being conducted and how the nurses will be wrapping up those screenings by the end of the week.
- Nutrition Department – Gina Valdez spoke about the Supper Program that is now offered at Flour Bluff ISD beginning September 19, 2022. It starts right after school. The meal is complimentary to all Flour Bluff students and children of the community* (name and age is needed per child for state regulations)
