In attendance were James Crenshaw, Erick Martinez, Dawn Evans, Brenda Carlisle, Erin Steward, Steven McClure, Amanda Cutbirth, Mance Cutbirth, Savanna Bledsoe, Phyllis Cox, Courtney Parker, Andrea Johnson, Erica Mora, Alan Rickertsen, and Mary Flores

Agenda items:

- 211 Texas/United Way Helpline Information – this was cancelled and rescheduled for the next meeting.
- Department of Health Services – Dr. Linda Barganski – wanted to let the committee know she was looking into a grant about $10,000. The grant would be used for physical fitness, mental health etc. One of the requirements is to have a letter of support from the School Health Advisory Council.
- YWTeens – YWCA Follow-up Questions – Nancy Wesson-Dodd – There were two handouts given to the council. A list of Lessons and Character Traits and a questions and answers handout for review and discussion. The council was asked if YWTeens could be voted on. It was decided that the council would move forward and vote on YWTeens. YWTeens was voted on and passes with a 9 to 2 favor.
- ASPIRE – Vape Curriculum – UT-MD Anderson – The council was asked if ASPIRE could be voted on. It was decided that the council would move forward and vote on ASPIRE curriculum. ASPIRE curriculum was voted on and passed with a unanimous favor 11 to 0.
- Child Nutrition Update – would like to ramp up the Supper Program again as it really helped families. Discussion of donations to go towards student lunch balances.
